1. It was rumored among Communists in Seoul on 10 July that before the invasion of the Republic of Korea (ROK), an agreement had been reached between the USSR, China and North Korea that the North Korean invasion of the ROK would be followed by the Chinese Communist invasion of Taiwan.
2. As part of the agreement, MAO Tse-tung asked the Soviets for landing craft and other vessels for the invasion of Taiwan. The USSR representative agreed, but stated that the vessels would have to wait for the occupation of all Korea by the North Korean government.
3. When the North Korean government evacuated Seoul on 20 September, candidates at the officers' school operated by the Communists in the ROK military training school at Taenung, Seoul were told that the North Koreans would return within six months. The commandant of the school promised a welcome for all candidates who would accompany the retreating North Koreans. Candidates unable to leave Seoul would receive living expenses for six months in Seoul.
